

Nelson Villas,
Westgate-on-Sea

New residential development for seaside town

Lee Evans Partnership has just designed Nelson Villas, a prestigious residential Development, for property developers The Murston Group.

Based on the outskirts of the unique Victorian town of Westgate-on-Sea in Thanet, Kent the new properties comprise of 24 individually designed homes which will provide accommodation ranging from first-time buyer flats through to family houses.

Built on the site of an old derelict builder's yard, the design draws on the historic character of the town in its conception and detailing. The new properties interface seamlessly with the existing Victorian streetscape and are an important part of the regeneration taking part throughout the Thanet area.
