

LEP partner, new branch chairman RIBA – 07/07/06

Matt Hayes,
Partner, LEP

LEP Partner, Matt Hayes, has just been appointed branch chairman of the RIBA Canterbury & District Branch.

Matt has a specific interest in sustainable architecture, and has just designed a striking new visitor centre at Shorne Wood, Kent County Council's popular country park near Gravesend. Designed as an example of best practice for sustainable architecture a key feature of the centre is its pioneering use of sweet chestnut .

Matt takes over as chairman from Guy Holloway of CTM Architects who has held the post for the last 2 years.